

BIG ASIA TV channel and bigasia.ru website

BIG ASIA TV channel started broadcasting on 1 June 2017. The project was presented as part of SPIEF 2017. During 7 years of operation the channel has built its own distribution network. Today it is broadcast by more than 250 telecom operators and online services from Kaliningrad to Petropavlovsk-Kamchatsky (Rostelecom, Wink, Tricolor, MTS, KION, Dom.ru, Movix, Telekarta, Beeline TV, Akado Telecom, TransTeleCom, Ufanet, Bashinformsvyaz, Tattelcom, Smotrim, START, Smotreshka, Peers.TV, Lime HD TV, ViNTERA.TV, VK Video etc.).

By the end of the third quarter of 2024, the channel's technical coverage reached 34,16 million households, or 92,24 million people. The technical coverage in Moscow is 94% of households, and across Russia – 70,8% of households. The average monthly coverage of the TV channel is 4,52 million viewers. Average daily coverage – 357,5 thousand viewers.

The multi-level bigasia.ru website is an independent media providing the audience with worldwide access to all the content of the media project. The website's editorial staff compiles its own news line, creates specialized content and promotes the subject of Russian-Asian cooperation on the Internet, including on all popular social networks. Each material of the website is viewed by 3 to 6 thousand users. Top news on the website are viewed up to 120 thousand times. The website is visited by 150 – 205 thousand users per month.

BIG ASIA TV channel and bigasia.ru website are unique media platforms for developing the issue of Eurasian integration. BIG ASIA TV channel is the only Russian media outlet to join the Silk Road TV Alliance (Sean). Today, the Alliance embraces 32 TV and radio organizations from 19 Asian and European countries.

BIG ASIA TV channel is an official partner of the China Media Group (CMG) and has priority right to broadcast information content on the platform CGTN and CCTV+. By uploading on CGTN-Russian and CCTV+ platforms the materials are available to leading media outlets with an audience coverage of more than 350 million viewers in the Russian-language segment and more than 1.5 billion in the English-language segment. BIG ASIA TV channel and bigasia.ru website produces and airs relevant news about China (9 episodes a week, the total duration – 75 minutes).

BIG ASIA Media resources use only positive information as a reliable basis for building trustful relations with diplomatic missions and international companies operating in Russia. BIG ASIA TV channel and bigasia.ru website are platforms for interaction with the executive authorities of the Russian Federation engaged in the development of Russian-Asian relations and Eurasian integration.

BIG ASIA TV channel and bigasia.ru website have Certificate of Mass Media and a universal broadcasting license which allows broadcast in 65 languages.